Emory College Semester Study Abroad Program - Credit and Grade Translation Memo

Program: Yonsei University (Seoul, South Korea)

Date Revised: August 2022

When studying abroad, students should be aware that their host institution's or program provider's credit and grading systems may differ from Emory's. The information contained in this memo is correct to the best of Emory College Education Abroad's knowledge as of the date posted above. This memo has been created using information provided by the study abroad program, in consultation with colleagues at other institutions utilizing the same study abroad program, and/or per guidelines or commonly used practices in the field of international education and education abroad. Students should also be aware that changes are possible at any time and should contact Emory College Education Abroad for clarification if any questions or concerns about course enrollment expectations or grading arise.

COURSE APPROVAL PROCESS

Students must obtain approval for ALL courses taken abroad and must consult with the appropriate departmental Faculty Study Abroad representative at Emory for course approvals that are NOT already blanket approved. Students may NOT take classes for which they cannot obtain approval. The Office of International and Summer Programs (OISP) will not process a study abroad transcript until approvals for ALL courses have been received.

CREDIT TRANSLATION

Emory will transfer credits as listed on the Yonsei University transcript. Students are required to take the equivalent of 15-16 Emory credits per semester and may take a maximum of 18 credits per semester. The number of courses students take will vary depending on the credits associated with each course.

All Emory students MUST take a Korean language course for the full semester at Yonsei University (typically 6 credits, except for the 3-credit Korean (1) Language Course offered by Office of International Affairs).

GRADE TRANSLATION

Emory will transfer grades as listed on the Yonsei University transcript. Grades will be recorded on the Emory transcript and will factor into the GPA.
