

Please find a list of organizations that have expressed interest in having Emory students participate in internship and/or volunteer opportunities. Please contact the organizations directly if you are interested.

CARTER CENTER

Lauren Kent-Delany, Director of Educational Programs
One Copenhill, 453 Freedom Parkway, Atlanta 30307
Tel: (404) 420-5154, Email: lauren.kent-delany@emory.edu
<http://www.cartercenter.org>

Founded in 1982 by former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and his wife, Rosalynn, the Carter Center is committed to advancing human rights and alleviating unnecessary human suffering. The Carter Center offers unique and diverse opportunities for undergraduate juniors and seniors, recent graduates (within two years of graduation), and graduate/professional students who are interested in contemporary international and domestic issues. The Internship Program is recognized both nationally and internationally, and has special appeal for those who wish to combine academic study with practical application and experience.

FAMILY REFUGEE SERVICES

3647 Market Street, Clarkston, GA 30021-1244
Tel: (404)-299-6217
<http://www.refugeefamilyservices.org/>

Family Refugee Services is a non-profit, non-governmental organization dedicated to helping refugee and immigrant women and children regain self-sufficiency through education, economic opportunities and direct support. Its programs and services include women's support, employment assistance, maternal health initiative, financial literacy, family violence prevention, youth programs, and English as a second language (ESL).

FERNBANK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

157 Heaton Park Drive, Atlanta, Georgia 30307 Tel: (678)874-9300
<http://www.dekalb.k12.ga.us/fernbank/>

Fernbank Elementary School is part of the Dekalb County Schools system and is located near the Emory campus. Fernbank Elementary offers opportunities for Emory students to participate in the International Day celebration in early spring. For more information, please contact the Parent Volunteer. For Fernbank International Day, the school needs volunteers who may want to lead Fernbank Elementary School students in a cultural activity from either England, Mexico, China or Morocco. We would love to have the children participate in arts, dances, sports, games, cooking or any other event that would excite them about the country. Volunteers would coordinate with Fernbank parent volunteers.

GLOBAL ATLANTA

Tel: (404) 377-7710, Email:
<http://www.globalatlanta.com/>

Global Atlanta is a part of Agio Press Inc., founded by Philip Bolton in 1991. The purpose of Global Atlanta is to develop publications providing news, information and analysis of interest to Atlanta and the Southeast's international business community. Global Atlanta works to facilitate the communication, networking and organizational activities of the Atlanta international business community.

HIGHTOWER ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

4236 Tilly Mill Road, Doraville, GA 30360

Tel: 678-676-7302

<http://www.dekalb.k12.ga.us/hightower/>

Hightower Elementary School is part of the Dekalb County Schools system and is located in the heart of the Doraville community in Atlanta. The student population is very diverse, including students from the following ethnic backgrounds: 20.6% Black, 4.5% White, 70% Hispanic, 3% Asian, and 1.9% Multiracial. Hightower Elementary School is actively seeking Emory student volunteers to assist with the diverse student population.

INTERNATIOAL RESCUE COMMITTEE (IRC)

Kensington Office Park, 4151 Memorial Drive, Suite 201C, Atlanta, Georgia 30032

Tel: (404) 292-7731

<http://www.theirc.org>

The International Rescue Committee Atlanta resettlement office is a non-profit, non-sectarian refugee resettlement agency dedicated to helping individuals and families from around the world who have escaped war or persecution. They offer internship positions in a range of programs including a reception and placement program, social services program, education programs, cross-cultural youth program, resource development, and client services.

THE ISRAEL CONSULATE GENERAL

Office of Media and Community Relations

1100 Spring St., N.W. Suite 440, Atlanta, GA 30309-2823

Tel: (404) 487-6510, Email: academy@atlanta.mfa.gov.il

<http://atlanta.mfa.gov.il/>

The Israel Consulate is an official office of the Israeli government and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Its first mission is to serve as a representative for Israel across the Southeast United States in order to strengthen the relationship between America and Israel. The Israel Consulate sends dignitaries to meet with groups and individuals and sends other representatives of Israel, including political experts and artistic performers to address various audiences. The Israel Consulate also performs administrative government services, such as renewing visas and passports for people traveling to Israel.

MIDDLE EAST PEACE EDUCATION PROGRAM

Tel: (404) 586-0460, Email: middleeast-se@afsc.org

<http://www.afsc.org/southeast/mepep/default.htm>

The Middle East Peace Education Program in the Southeastern Regional Office (SERO) initially focused primarily on the conflict in Israel and Palestine. Currently MEPEP also addresses other Middle East issues, with particular concern for the invasion/occupation of Iraq, the US interventions in the region, and the rights of peoples from the Middle East living in the US. MEPEP works to relieve and prevent suffering through both immediate aid and long-term development and seek to serve the needs of people on all sides of violent strife.

MONTCLAIR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

1680 Clairmont Place, NE, Atlanta, GA 30329

Tel: 678-874-7302,

<http://www.dekalb.k12.ga.us/montclair/>

Montclair Elementary School is part of Dekalb County Schools system and is located in the Doraville-Chamblee community in Atlanta. Montclair Elementary has a diverse student population, including a large Hispanic and English as a Second Language (ESL) student body. Montclair Elementary is actively seeking Emory student volunteers to help Hispanic parents communicate with their children's teachers during parent/teacher conferences. Volunteers will bridge the communication gap between parents and teachers by serving as Spanish/English interpreters.

SHINE

<http://www.projectshineatlanta.org/>

Project SHINE links college students with older immigrants and refugees seeking to learn English and navigate the complex path to U.S. citizenship. It provides an opportunity to deepen students' theoretical understanding in a broad range of disciplines, including urban studies, anthropology, English, TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages), sociology, public policy and history. Students gain knowledge of diverse cultures and life experiences, develop skills beyond the textbook, and find a powerful way to reinforce their academic studies.

WORLD RELIEF

655 Village Square Dr., Stone Mountain, GA 30083

Tel: (404) 294-4352

<http://atlanta.wr.org/>

This international non-profit organization works with local evangelical churches in the Atlanta area to address issues of poverty, disease, persecution, and the effects of war and disasters. The organization has programs in micro-enterprise development, AIDS ministries, child development, disaster response, agricultural ministries, refugee care, immigration assistance, and trafficking victim protection.

WORLD TRADE CENTER ATLANTA

SunTrust Plaza, 303 Peachtree Street NE, Lower Lobby Suite 100

Tel: (404) 880-1562,

<http://www.wtcatlanta.com>

The World Trade Center Atlanta was founded in 1982 as part of the World Trade Centers Association and is currently located in the Sun Trust Plaza. The World Trade Centers Association (WTCA) is an organization that stands outside politics across national boundaries, in service to those who develop and facilitate international trade. With its unique global mission and membership, the WTCA has been a world leader in creating innovative service for international business. The World Trade Centers Association is a not-for-profit, non-political association that fosters the WTC concept and develops inter-WTC cooperative programs. WTCA was established in 1970 to facilitate international trade by bringing those together exporters, importers and service providers.